RE: Support for Save Canada Post Campaign

Dear Brother Lemelin,

I am writing on behalf of the 12,000 members of AMAPCEO to express our support and solidarity with your "Save Canada Post" campaign. Following our meeting in Ottawa in February, 2015, I brought forward a resolution in support of your campaign to our Board of Directors, which was adopted unanimously on April 28. The text of the resolution is below:

Resolved that:

- The AMAPCEO Board of Directors endorses the "Save Canada Post" campaign to save door to door delivery and invest in a public post office, including a commitment to:
 - fair postage rates;
 - accessible delivery for rural and urban Canadians;
 - a greener post office;
 - real public consultation on any changes to the postal service;
 - reintroduction of postal financial services, as have been successfully implemented in Switzerland, France, the UK and Italy;
 - respect, fairness and decent working conditions for public servants employed at Canada Post;
- The AMAPCEO Board of Directors directs the President to work with the Executive Director to communicate AMAPCEO's position to members and activists;
- That AMAPCEO will provide "Save Canada Post" information and promotional materials (buttons, stickers, window/lawn signs) at upcoming events and conferences;
- The President will write to the President, Canadian Union of Postal Workers to express AMAPCEO's support for the campaign.

The attack on Canada Post is a blatant attack on a fundamental public service. Despite many creative ideas having been put forward to revitalize the postal service, the current federal government remains committed to an ideological position.

AMAPCEO represents more than 12,000 public sector professionals who work directly for the Ontario provincial government, as well as in 7 agencies across the province. As fellow Canadians, as fellow public servants, and as trade unionists, we support your fight to Save Canada Post.

Please let me know if there is anything further that we can do support your campaign.

In solidarity,
